Headline:
Sunny spells and, especially in east, showers.

Today:
A bright day with a mix of sunshine and occasionally heavy showers, these mainly east of Glasgow with the west staying largely dry. The showers tend to die out during the second half of the afternoon. Mainly light winds. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Tonight:
A mostly dry evening and night with some late sunshine then long clear spells overnight. Risk of a few mist and fog patches developing through the early hours. Minimum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Tuesday:
Plenty of dry weather around with some good spells of sunshine however, away from the coast, there will be some showers developing. Light westerly winds. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Rather cloudy with a few showers on Wednesday. Bright start on Thursday but cloud, occasionally heavy rain and strengthening winds soon pushing east. Further rain or showers on Friday.
